Day Air Credit Union Awards Two $1,000 Scholarships to Area Students

Kettering, Ohio, August 5, 2015 – As students are gearing up for the upcoming academic year, Day Air Credit Union is announcing that the two recipients of our $1,000 academic scholarships are Sheelagh Jackson from Oakwood High School and Andrea Liberman from Centerville High School.

Day Air Credit Union's scholarship is based on academic achievement, extracurricular activities, community service involvement and an essay on financial literacy.

"Our mission is to improve our members' financial well-being and in doing so we believe it is important to recognize student members who are high achievers both in the classroom and the community" says William Burke, President & CEO. "The two chosen to receive scholarship awards stood out among their peers as future leaders of our communities. We look forward to helping these members reach their educational goals."

Day Air Credit Union has a long-standing history of service to local communities and the scholarship awards will support those students who exhibit the same commitment.

Andrea Liberman is currently a senior at Centerville High School. In high school Andrea participated in many school activities including the Varsity Dance Team, Band, Key Club and Student Government. In addition, Andrea is very active in the community by volunteering for the YMCA Junior Leadership Dayton and other community organizations. Academically Andrea excelled being a member of National Honor Society, was a Scholar Athlete and was an AP Scholar with Distinction. Andrea is very excited about her upcoming graduation and will be attending Vanderbilt University where she will major in Cognitive Studies.

Sheelagh Jackson is currently a senior at Oakwood High School. In high school Sheelagh participated in numerous leadership activities including; Junior Leadership of Dayton, was a member of the Student Advisory Board of Oakwood Schools Foundation Board and Anytown Youth Leadership Institute. In addition, Sheelagh volunteers in numerous ways in the community. She is also a member of National Honor Society and has received several scholastic awards during her high school career. Sheelagh is looking forward to attending John Carroll University in the fall where she will be studying English with an emphasis on the Professional Writing Track.

Scholarship awards are granted annually. For more information on eligibility and the application process, call 937-643-2160.
