Day Air Credit Union Members Feed the Hungry

Kettering, Ohio, October 13, 2015 – Every week, 1,400 children are at risk of going hungry in the Miami Valley. Day Air Credit Union is working to help the Dayton FoodBank combat those numbers.

Last month, Day Air Credit Union held an in-branch food drive at each of their 5 offices: in Kettering, Centerville and Butler Township and on the University of Dayton campus and VA Medical Center.

In all, 908 pounds of food was collected through the help Day Air's 34,000 members. It was such a huge success Day Air Credit Union plans to hold another food drive in December.

"As a community oriented credit union, we feel that it is our duty to support local charities like the Dayton FoodBank," said William Burke, President and CEO of Day Air Credit Union.

On October 17th Day Air Credit Union will also have our Volunteer Day at the Foodbank, with 20 members helping to pack Good-to-Go Backpacks for school aged children. Our members filled the spots in minutes. Day Air is going to offer another opportunity to volunteer in February.

"This is just another part of the credit union's "Do Good Dayton" initiative as we celebrate our 70th anniversary by giving back to the community that has helped us grow," reminded Burke.
