Day Air Credit Union Receives Financial Education Grant

Kettering, Ohio, November 19, 2015 – The Ohio Credit Union Foundation has issued a Financial Education Grant to Day Air Credit Union for $3473 to assist with providing adult financial education to ex-offenders, via the Montgomery County Office of Ex-Offender Reentry program for fall 2015.

Jamie Gee, Manager of The Montgomery County Office of Ex-Offender Reentry expressed her appreciation. “Our office serves the citizens of Montgomery County with programs that minimize barriers to effective reentry and promote reduction in recidivism. Our motto of “Action, Alliance, and Accountability”, is supported by community partners like Day Air Credit Union.”

The 2015 Reentry Career Alliance Academy is a three week intense learning experience presented by community members and staff of the Office of Ex-Offender Reentry. Day Air Credit Union presents to the dedicated returning citizens: Goal Setting, Budgeting, Checking and Credit Score training and provides practical resources. Throughout the course the attendees are also exposed to computer literacy, legal restrictions, decision making, career options, resume building, mock interviews, personal responsibility and more.

“The funds from this Ohio Credit Union Foundation will help us to provide enhanced life services to the returning citizens of our community. Day Air Credit Union exists to enhance our member’s financial well-being. We also believe that improving our community members financial understanding is extremely important. We are living our mission by being a resource for our returning citizens with the grant from The OCUF.” said William Burke, President and CEO of Day Air Credit Union.

DAY AIR CREDIT UNION, established in 1945, proudly serves businesses and residents of the Dayton Area in southwest Ohio. With over $307 million in assets and more than 34,000 members, Day Air is a not-for-profit, full-service financial institution. Credit Union members have access to thousands of surcharge-free ATMs and shared branches nationwide. Membership is open to people living, working, worshiping or attending school in the Miami Valley.
