Day Air Credit Union Promotes Nathan Moore to Centerville Branch Manager

Kettering, Ohio, August 20, 2020 – Day Air Credit Union, the largest financial institution headquartered in Montgomery County, is excited to announce the promotion of Nathan Moore to Centerville Branch Manager. In his new role, Nathan will be responsible for coaching and developing staff and managing and cultivating a sales and service culture at the branch. Additionally, he will lead community development efforts throughout Centerville on behalf of Day Air Credit Union.

“We are pleased to put Nathan in this well-deserved leadership position within our organization,” said Bill Burke, President and CEO. “We are more than confident that Nathan will flourish in this new role and we are excited to see his continued growth.”

Nathan joined the Day Air Credit Union team in 2019 as a Member Service Representative III at Day Air’s Wilmington Pike Branch. He quickly advanced to various leadership roles within the organization, assuming the duties of an Interim Branch Manager at the Centerville Branch. He was then promoted to Assistant Branch Manager at the York Commons Branch before accepting the Centerville Branch Manager position. Nathan gives credit to exceptional on the job training with previous supervisors, Daniel Koons and Kim Moyer, who he worked closely with since joining Day Air Credit Union.

Nathan spent his early years serving in the Navy as a Hospital Corpsman with a variety of Marine Corps and Army Units. After his time in the Navy, he obtained multiple certifications in the music industry. Following his time in the music industry, Nathan was selected for a leadership role at Best Buy and became the Home Theatre Supervisor. In 2017, he began working in the banking industry spending two years as a Personal Banker and laying the foundation for his successful career in financial services at Day Air Credit Union.
